Near-Fights And Harsh Words Mark GOP Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tung prepare food for a party they held for Chinese students Saturday night here. Their party was in celebration of Chinese New Year, traditionally celebrated by a week of partying in China. About 16 students attended the affair.

BY CARROLL WILSON

The Randall County Republican executive committee proved Monday night it is split asunder during an explosive meeting which almost saw two fist fights.

"I hope we can approach this meeting tonight with an attitude of Christian good will," said precinct chairman Beverly Dampf before the meeting began. He later made the same plea and then offered to fight Fletcher Sims and Lester Smith.

A major portion of the meeting was in turmoil, as several precinct chairmen verbally assaulted County Chairman Dick Brooks.

Those who led the assault were roused by comments Brooks made in The Canyon News last Thursday.

The meeting started calmly enough with Brooks naming the various candidates for positions in the county. But, slowly an underlying crescendo of explosiveness built up in the meeting.

The whole thing reached a head when Sims, who is seeking re-election as a precinct chairman, calmly told Brooks "I am not an infiltrator, by the way," and began outlining his career in the Republican Party.

Brooks, in last week's paper, had called several precinct chairmen infiltrators in the party.

Brooks tried to avert a confrontation by going back to the subject they had been talking about—appointment of new chairmen to replace vacancies in several precincts.

All of a sudden it exploded.

"You were trying to prejudice the voters against a Republican candidate in the Canyon News last Thursday," Sims shouted. "It's all sweetness and light here. But, that article was very prejudicial."

Smith, his face reddened with anger, turned to this reporter and warned "you better watch letting people lip off in your paper—I don't like to be called a communist. And, you can tell that to Troy, too."

Art Garner, another precinct chairman, then spoke up.

"The lead article says

Neil Braboy is a former member of the John Birch Society. . . ."

"Isn't that correct?" Brooks asked.

"Well, yes. . . ." said Garner.

Sims was on his feet. "As far as infiltrators are concerned, remember that I was the one who started rural Randall County work for the party," he said.

Dampf jumped to his feet and pointed a warning finger at Sims.

By this time, Smith was on his feet.

"Anybody calls me a communist again had better take me on," he shouted.

Dampf tried to retain order. "There's no need to do this," he said, and began trying to console Sims and Smith, but Brooks cut him short.

"Let's face the facts," he began before Sims erupted again.

"I'm sick and tired of your pop-off statements," he said to Brooks. "You apparently know a little about communist tactics yourself, because that's what you're doing. You came into office by 21 votes and apparently it's gone to your head. I'm sick and tired of these statements."

"Are you going to support the party nominees this year?" Brooks asked.

"Yes," Sims replied. "I wasn't supporting Wallace in the primary last time."

Dampf again tried to calm the meeting down. "Let's all (See NEAR, Page 9)

Will Replace Other Organizations Club To Solicit Athletic Funds

An organization to replace existing groups which solicit funds for West Texas State University athletic scholarships and recruitment has been formed through the West Texas Ex-Students Association.

Troy Burrus, past president of the exes, said the organization will be called The Buffalo Club. It will solicit monies for athletic scholarships.

The Buffalo Club will replace such organizations, which now have memberships throughout the Panhandle.

"The Buffalo Club is an off-campus organization with the sole objective of supporting the West Texas State University athletic program by helping finance the cost of room, board and tuition for deserving student athletes toward continuing their education on the West Texas State University campus," Burrus said.

Currently no officers of the club have been named. Burrus said the club will have a regularly-elected board of directors and it is hoped a full-time executive secretary can be hired. Burrus said after the club is fully established, the ex-students association will have nothing to do with the running of the club.

By-laws and plans for the club have been approved by the university administration and the ex-student board of directors.

Revenue from the club will be sent directly to the West Texas State University Foundation with checks to be earmarked for the Buffalo Club.

Burrus said the money will then be dispersed by the comptroller of WTSU. He said all money will be used for scholarships except what is needed to run the club itself.

"The Buffalo Club books will be audited at the end of each President's term of office or any other times when necessary," Burrus said. "The funds deposited with the university will go through the state audit. This organization will be run in line with the National Collegiate Athletic Association and any conference WTSU becomes a member of."

Burrus said the organization will get scholarship money for track, tennis, basketball, baseball, football and any athletic endeavor on campus.

"We're going for an all-round program," he said.

Burrus said the organization was formulated by the ex-student board of directors under the leadership of past president Duane Byars.

"It was their feeling that we had so many organizations going to the same individuals asking them for money for the same thing," he said. "It was the feeling that one could do a lot better."

Burrus said where funds received in the other organizations had been used for recruiting, the Buffalo Club money will be exclusively for scholarships.

Boyce Box, a member of the ex-students committee which has been working on the Buffalo Club, said most major universities in the country use just one central organization for soliciting funds.

The Club hopes to have a donated office and furnishings and a car.

Other committee members were Willis Hawkins, Stan-

CHS Favorites Given Honors

"Mr. and Miss CHS" were crowned in ceremonies Saturday evening at the Canyon High School commons.

Recognized with the honor were Jan Sternberg and Jerry Landrum. Both are 17 and classified in school as senior students. The crowns are awarded by student popularity vote.

Miss Sternberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sternberg, is a varsity basketball player at the position of forward, was a member of the state basketball team last year and has lettered three years at the school in athletics.

She has been a candidate for Lion's Queen, Halloween Carnival Queen and Homecoming Queen at the high school this year and was president of the Future Homemakers of America as a freshman. She was recently named "most versatile" of the senior class and was last year honored as a favorite for the junior class.

Jerry Landrum, 17, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Landrum of Canyon and has a twin brother, Terry, who is away at all-state choir events this week.

Jerry is president of the Canyon High School Student Council and was recently selected as "most versatile" of the senior class. He is also active in choir and won all-region this year in his choir activities. As a junior and sophomore, Jerry was a member of the all-state quartet which won first place his sophomore year and II as a junior.

He is now in his second year as a varsity basketball team member at Canyon High School.

The Crowning of Mr. and Miss CHS was conducted Saturday night at an all-school social in the Canyon High School commons. Receiving the honor were Jerry Landrum and Jan Sternberg. Yearbook photographer, Stephen Daugherty, photographed the occasion.

Dowlen Will Seek Death For Brooks

Randall County Dist. Atty. George Dowlen announced Monday in 181st District Court that the prosecution will seek the death penalty for a 23-year-old man charged with forcible rape.

District Judge Don Dean set March 30 as the trial date for Curtis Frank Brooks, being held without bond in Randall County jail on charges of forcible rape and armed robbery. The trial date was set pending the approval of 47th District Court Judge Gene Jordan, who will hear the case.

Brooks was arrested Jan. 19 at the Amarillo Air Terminal charged with forcible rape of a South Amarillo housewife on the previous day.

Mike Morris Files For School Board

A Canyon insurance man filed Wednesday as a candidate in the upcoming election to fill two places on the Canyon Independent School District board.

Mike Morris, a Canyon resident 23 years, seeks the position.

A native of Amarillo, Morris attended schools there, including Amarillo High School, where he graduated in 1944, and Amarillo College.

"The future of this country will some day rest in the hands of our children," Morris said. "The responsibility of preparing our young people for the future is ours and the public school system is a vital part of this preparation."

"It is every citizen's obligation to take an active interest in the educational

To Defray Cost Of Personnel County Votes $376 For Dump

After a months-long hassle over who might pay what for Canyon's dump grounds, Randall County Commissioners appropriated $376 Monday to defray city expenses for personnel at the dump.

The $376 is to be paid over a three-month period.

Clarence Beckman moved for the appropriation, calling for the funding of one-third of the part-time salaries paid by the city to dump personnel for three months.

One month's part-time salaries total $376.

Mayor Paul Lindsey talked with commissioners Monday about the dump, which has been a topic of talks for several months.

He proposed a different plan for solving the city's dump problems.

"If something can be worked out, we'd like to leave it (the dump) open," he said. "If it can't, we could pass an ordinance so we could comply in that we would designate a portion of the space at the dump as being the county's and lease it to you or deed it to you to get it where the blame for not complying would not be on our backs."

The city must comply with a state law prohibiting burning of trash at the dump.

"Then any free hauling could be on the county side of the fence," the mayor said. "That'd take us off the hook."

"I don't know who'd be getting off the hook and who'd be getting on," said Commissioner Bill Butler.

Judge Carroll Brown voiced a question which he had asked a week ago.

"Would it be practical to charge enough to pay for covering it (trash) up or whatever is to be done with it?" he asked.

"It'd be about prohibitive," Lindsey said.

The judge noted prices which the City of Amarillo charges for dumping at its dump ground and asked if Canyon could charge the same and meet the expenses.

"We set the price, but if you think it's not nearly enough, we could try to adjust it," the mayor said.

Butler said county participation in paying for the dump would create a double tax burden on persons living in South Amarillo.

The mayor presented an estimated budget of expenditures and revenue for the dump ground next year. The budget reflects an expenditure of $15,650 and an estimated revenue of $1,500.

Beckman suggested the county help pay for expenses for three months so the county would not be out much money. His motion passed.

In other action, the commission instructed Mrs. (See COUNTY, Page 9)

Storoska Calls For Cool If Assaulted

An audience of approximately 150 women, and several self-conscious men, gathered at the Student Union Ballroom at West Texas State University Monday night to hear an expert speak on the prevention of assaults on women.

Frederic Storoska of Raleigh, N. C., mixed an equal amount of humor and serious fact to keep the audience completely engrossed during the two-hour lecture.

Storoska, a psychologist and black belt instructor in Karate, told the initially nervous audience "I don't believe in teaching you to be soldiers."

"I am not here to do away with the male population of Texas," he said. "Besides, a bazooka gets awfully heavy."

The lecturer based his answer to the problem of assaults on women on one simple premise: "Go along with the assault until you see a chance to safely react."

Storoska said he did not recommend women carrying such "weapons" as tear gas pens, fingernail files and rat tail combs.

"In the cases I have investigated, 70 per cent of the women who used a tear gas pen were downwind and got gassed," he said. "As for the other things, where does a woman carry them? In her purse. . . and the first thing she does when she is attacked is drop her pocket book."

Although Storoska said statistics show that not one woman in 1,000 is ever involved in a serious assault, the one who is should not struggle.

"All struggling can accomplish is maiming yourself and exciting the man," he said. "Again I say it is better to go along with the situation and remain cool, until you can safely react."

The self-defense expert showed the predominately female audience several self defense measures to use "when you are convinced it is a life and death situation."

These measures included tearing out a man's eyes, utilizing pressure points behind the jawbone and the use of a Karate "thrust kick."

"Nothing works all the time," he said. "It is up to you, the individual. I will not be there to help you. But I say this, whatever I tell you tonight, if it does not help you it will hurt your immediate situation."

FROM THE CANYON RIM

The Democratic Party's answer to the President's state of the Union message was aired on all three national television networks Sunday.

It seems that the time was made available as a public service. At least I didn't hear any statement that it was paid political advertising. It certainly was advertising—paid or not.

The answer was misleading almost in total. Representative Udall from Arizona was shown against a backdrop of oil rigs discussing pollution. To hear Congressman Udall tell it things have come to a sorry state with the administration not moving fast enough to solve the nation's pollution problems.

What Udall didn't mention was the fact that his brother, Stuart Udall, was secretary of the interior under Lyndon Johnson at a time when a vast area of the California coast was polluted by a marine oil well.

The question could logically be asked: "Why didn't Secretary Udall do something about pollution during his tenure?"

Congressman Ming from Hawaii stood in a supermarket interviewing housewives about the rising cost of living and of course laying the fault all at the door of the administration.

One housewife complained bitterly and suggested that something should be done about farm prices, insinuating that it is the farmers who are gouging the consumer.

Of course nothing was said about the fact that the Nixon administration inherited a spiraling inflation and an expensive war from the Democrats a year ago.

Senator Ralph Yarborough interviewed a group of workers who had been laid off their jobs. They complained that relief checks were three weeks in coming through.

"You could starve waiting three weeks," said one worker. "Why, I had to boom out and go to work at something else."

The senior senator from Texas shook his head in sympathy.

An area religious group has sanctioned President Nixon's family assistance program.

It sounds good on the surface but I wonder how much of such assistance goes for liquor instead of for feeding the hungry kids for which it is intended.

A Canyon man this week told me of a young woman—22 years old—on welfare in East Texas. At her age she already has five illegitimate children for whom she is drawing assistance. She also has a boy friend on whom she spends most of her government check.

Until something can be done to remedy situations like this, we can pour out our entire treasury and the poor will remain with us.

I take exception to a statement made recently by a sociologist who said: "It all comes down to whether we want to obey the Second Commandment and assume responsibility for our neighbors."

I believe the commandment was to love thy neighbor, not to assume responsibility for him.

Mayor Paul Lindsey offered as fair a solution to the dump ground problem as could have been advanced Monday.

He offered to deed a portion of the dump ground to the county and let the county operate its own dumping facility.

Of course commissioners court doesn't want to do this.

The court has offered to pay $128 a month for the next three months toward hiring personnel for the dump but I doubt that the city will be satisfied with this remedy.

Operation of the dump ground is almost a total loss for the city. Figures presented to the commissioners show that expense of operating the facility comes to almost $16,000 a year while revenue is estimated at $1500.

It is ironic that the people on commissioners court who have given most lip service to regional planning are the ones who are dragging their feet on this problem which is of acute importance both to Canyon and South Amarillo.

Judge Carroll Brown says he doesn't think the county should get involved in the dump ground cleanup problem. This looks like good politics for Judge Brown who is asking the voters to promote him to district judge.

But it might not look so good if the dump were closed to South Amarillo people and they were told that they could thank Judge Brown for the inconvenience of having to drive to the Amarillo city dump northwest of Amarillo.

Miss Flipper Is WT Beauty

Miss Geraldine Sayle, a senior at West Texas State University, was crowned as "Miss Flipper" 1970 in ceremonies Monday evening preceding the 21st annual international pancake race in Liberal, Kansas.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Sayle of 2212 S. Washington, Miss Sayle was sponsored by the North Amarillo Lions Club and judging included talent, bathing suit and evening dress with competition entered from Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas.

Miss Sayle was featured in the pancake day parade on Tuesday. She is a speech education major at the university and won the talent division of the contest.

BY ANN BROWN

The majority of American young people are apparently the same fine quality they have always been. Why then have they not been more defensive of American institutions under attack by the dissident minority?

The reasons are complex, of course, but our quality youngsters are surely confused by the distorted values and inconsistencies of the adult power structure. Why, they ask, do we spend billions of dollars and send some 3 million soldiers around the world to combat communism, yet give the communists free rein in our own country?

Why have we been maintaining 500,000 men half way around the world, armed to the teeth, with orders to shoot to kill, to protect the homes of strangers from invasion, yet we refuse to allow our own people to protect their homes? In addition to all the proposed legislation designed to deprive law-abiding citizens of their guns, the courts definitely favor the criminal element. Why?

Why does the federal government usurp the rights of the states in direct violation of the Constitution?

Why has the Supreme Court destroyed local control by overruling almost every decision of the lower courts?

Twelve deputy sheriffs who arrested trespassers at the U.C. at Berkeley last May 15, have been charged with federal indictments for "depriving the victims of their liberty."

A small farmer in Iowa rigged a shotgun in the bedroom of his home to protect his family from criminal intruders. A prowler was shot in the ankle. The hoodlum was fined $50 and released. He promptly sued the farmer for $35,000 and the courts gave it to him. The farmer's home has been sold by the sheriff for $10,001 as partial payment to the thief. He was granted judgement for the rest.

Letter to The Editor

Dear Editor:

In every local newspaper lately, the top story is about the Canyon dump ground, which has gotten to be a little ridiculous. It's certainly nice that the city and county commissioners don't have any serious problems to solve, since most of their time is apparently taken up with this subject. I certainly think a complete new set of commissioners is in order if this haggling can't be solved.

I certainly believe the county is obligated to help with the dump since the farmers and other people who live in rural Randall County use the city dump and are part of the county even though most of the commissioners have forgotten this.

I agree that the Amarillo citizens are paying for trash services the same as Canyon citizens, but I don't believe this gives either the free right to haul shingles, trees, car bodies, appliances, etc. to the wholly city maintained dump, as the cities are also inside the county lines.

Any dump is a problem and a terrible health hazard.

Sincerely,
Name on File

Our World

Apparently, no expense is spared to provide legal counsel, parole and probation officers, prison psychologists, and other counselors to aid the delinquents. And the counselors' recommendations seem to carry tremendous weight with the power structure. Individual needs are given careful consideration.

However, relatively few counselors are available to our public school and college students. And the students' individual needs are likely to be ignored if they require any deviation from routines or schedules. The fact that an occasional exception to a rule might enable a student to graduate a semester or even an entire year earlier is not likely to be given much consideration by teachers or administrators.

If a little more empathy and consideration were available to our well-adjusted majority, we might not have to finance so much rehabilitation for the maladjusted minority. An ounce of prevention is still worth a pound of cure, and it is much more pleasant to administer.

The rights of the accused are of paramount importance in criminal cases. If the culprit is not extended every courtesy, and consideration, all charges are likely to be dismissed, regardless of the seriousness of the crime or the certainty of guilt.

Not so with our law-abiding students. Frequently in classrooms, halls, and registration lines, students are subjected to sarcasm, ridicule, and rudeness that could be classified as "police brutality" in any reformatory or prison. How can adults expect courtesy from young people where none is extended?

Americans have traditionally prized freedom, honesty, and integrity above all else, and have participated in two global wars and many lesser conflicts to preserve freedom for our selves and our neighbors. Now that our nation has changed from a worker's world to a parasite's paradise, and our courts have become paties for the law-breakers instead of protectors of the law-abiding, how do we justify our new value system to honest, idealistic young people? If we are as hypocritical as the dissidents contend, what are we going to do about it?

Director Outlines Character Of Play

BY BILL LYON
Music Director

The musical play George M is concerned with the show business career of George M. Cohan.

Having been raised as a boy (backstage—so to speak) in a family of show people, little George took very naturally to show business. During this time (at the turn of the 20th Century) the two big areas of show business were vaudeville and musical plays.

The musical depicts Cohan's vaudeville career and shows his transition to musical comedy. The play shows clearly that his ambition and talents were meant for the Broadway stage.

The viewer is led to believe that George M. Cohan truly became "The Man Who Owned Broadway."

George M Tickets On Sale At CHS

Tickets for "George M" have gone on sale at Canyon High School, 655-2168, or from cast members of the production.

St. Paul Lutherans Will Observe Lenten Season

St. Paul Lutheran Church will observe the Lenten season, the six-week period before Easter, with a series of Wednesday evening worship services at 7:30 p.m.

The Rev. Samuel H. Nafzger will deliver a series of messages on the theme "The Sign of the Cross."

The Lenten season, observed by the Christian Church the world around since the time of Charlemagne about 800 A. D., begins each year on Ash Wednesday and ends 40 days later on the day before Easter. It is a time of preparation for the celebration of Christ's resurrection from the dead on Easter Sunday.

"The sign of the times is still the sign of the cross," said the Rev. Samuel Nafzger. "In our special Lenten worship services this year we shall view the cross as a sign of forgiveness, peace, understanding, agony, decision, mystery, power, and finality."

The public is invited to attend these services at 2600 4th Avenue each Wednesday evening.

During Holy Week, the week before Easter, a special communion celebration will take place on Maundy Thursday.

Joe Granato Hired As Coach

Joe Granato has been hired as defensive line coach at West Texas State University, replacing Jim Curtis, who resigned last week.

Granato joins the football coaching staff officially this week after Monday night's meeting of the Amarillo School Board. He was an assistant coach at Amarillo High School.

Curtis has accepted a position in the men's physical education department of the university for the spring semester.

The announcements came

Friday from head football coach and director of athletics Joe Kerbel.

Curtis said he felt collegiate coaching kept him out of town too much recruiting and scouting, and away from his family.

Granato played end on the 1960 and 1961 West Texas State teams under Kerbel. He graduated from high school at San Antonio Thomas Edison and played two years of football at Del Mar Junior College in Corpus Christi, where he was named to the all-conference team.

Following his graduation from West Texas State he coached from 1962 to 1964 as an assistant at Silverton High School. He was an assistant at Spur in 1965, at Spearman in 1966 and moved to Amarillo High in 1967.

Granato, who received his master's degree from Sam Houston State in 1967, married former West Texas State cheerleader Barbara Knox and they have three children, Tonia, 8, Toddy, 6, and Tregg, 2.

Curtis, who formerly coached at Checotah, Okla., Wilburton, Okla., Norman, Okla., Lubbock, El Reno, Okla., Amarillo and Sulphur Springs, joined the West Texas State staff last spring.

Bill Foil will be guest speaker for the First Baptist Church of Canyon on Sunday, February 15. The church pulpit committee is presently interviewing for the church a new pastor and Foil, who is pastor of the First Baptist Church in Friona, will be here in view of a call.

JAMIE MIDDLETON, left, watches as brother, Randy, presents their mother, Mrs. J. C. Middleton, with charm bracelet signifying advancement.

Several WT Students Involved In Panhandle Political Action

West Texas State University students are becoming actively engaged in the 1970 political arena, with one filing for the office of state legislator and three filing as county precinct chairman.

Phil Cates, 23, a graduate student and assistant dean of student life for student affairs, is seeking the Legislative seat vacated by Malouf Abraham of Canadian.

"I think it's high time a politician from that district meet the people or attempted to meet the people of that district," Cates said.

John Roberts, 26, a junior at WTSU majoring in social studies, said he made his decision to file for the Republican precinct chairman seat in the 24th Precinct in Potter County after discussing the move with a friend.

"We got to talking about politics in general

Son's Birth Is Announced

and we realized there hadn't been anyone file in two races," he said. "We felt this was a chance to practice positive citizenship on the basic level."

His friend, Ted Unruh of 2200 E. 23rd in Amarillo, filed for precinct chairman of Precinct 26 in Potter County.

"I just felt someone should show some interest in these races," he said.

Unruh, 50, is a retired captain in the U. S. Air Force Reserve and is a full-time student at WTSU. He is seeking a business administration degree.

Jim Killingsworth, 26, Installation Set Sunday At Mt. Zion Here

Rev. William Johnson will be installed with full pastoral duties of the Mount Zion Baptist Church in Canyon Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m.

The church which was organized early last summer now has a membership of over 75. Rev. H. D. Freeman, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church here, will give the charge and guest pastors from Lubbock, Lockney and Amarillo will also participate on the program.

Located at 1600 5th Avenue, the church will be open to the public for the installation and afterwards at a reception in honor of the pastor and his family.

of 1909 2nd Ave., in Canyon will be seeking the precinct chairmanship now held by Fletcher Sims.

"I think the Republican Party in Randall County needs a stronger foundation," he said. "There are too many 'Republicans' using the party for their own gains."

Killingsworth, an Army veteran and a freshman at WTSU, said he is "in the process of reviewing the duties of a precinct chairman."

Liberal Players Sign With WT

Three Liberal High School football players have signed athletic scholarship agreements with West Texas State University.

Joe Kerbel, West Texas State's head football coach and director of athletics, made the announcement of the signings Monday.

All three of the players—end Mike Hough, tackle John Ratzlaff and running back David Dieckrich—were honorable mention Kansas all-stars and were named to the all-area team as picked by Liberal's Southwestern Daily Times.

West Texas State assistants Lance Van Zandt and Jim Ostrander are high on all three of the signees.

"All three boys have both the size and quickness to be standout college player," said Van Zandt.

Hough, an offensive end, is 6-4 and 195, while Ratzlaff is 6-1 and 210 and Dieckrich is 6-2 and 195. Dieckrich also played linebacker and defensive end for the Redskins of coach Greg Sherwood, who had a 6-3 record this past year.

1970 Census Count Being Taken Now

The 1970 census for public school information is being taken now through the principal's offices of the Canyon Independent School District.

Census forms were issued to public school students with recent report cards. Parents who will have students in the public schools next fall are urged to complete and return the census forms to the school principals.

And parents, not yet contacted, who will have students beginning public school training here in the fall of 1970 should contact the school principal in their area as soon as possible.

The census enumeration allows for the schools to make adequate planning for space, equipment and supplies for the student load expected next fall.

■ 99.997% - that's our record for reliable electric service. We'd like it to be 100% (and, we keep working toward that goal). But, a careless driver knocking down some of our equipment or lightning hitting a transformer are things over which we don't have much control and so try as we may, we haven't been able to reach that ideal 100%.

■ One thing we have been able to do - that's to make certain you will have all the power you want when you want it. Right now there are on the docket of said Court and styled IN RE THE ADOPTION OF WILLIAM BRENT WILSON AND RHONDA LEANN WILSON.

1,812,000 kilowatts backing up your use of electricity. And, by July of next year a new generating station will add another 210,000 kilowatts. One kilowatt will run more than 3 TV sets just to give you an idea of how much power there is for your use.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to-wit:

Petition by Robert Preston Mann, not joined herein by his wife, Marilyn Ann Mann, for the reason that she is the natural mother of the children sought to be adopted, for the adoption of William Brent Wilson and Rhonda LeAnn Wilson, minor children. Petition alleges that the consent for this adoption by William Benson Wilson, the natural father of William Brent Wilson and Rhonda LeAnn Wilson, is not necessary because the said William Benson Wilson has voluntarily abandoned and deserted such children for a period of more than two years and has left such children in the care, custody, control and management of the Petitioner and his wife, as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and the seal of said Court at office in Canyon, Texas, this 21st day of January, A. D. 1970.

Buffs Bound To Win Over Houston Baptist

The West Texas State University Buffaloes used an effective full-court press during the second half Tuesday night to rattle and overcome Houston Baptist College 77-67 before a meager Canyon crowd.

Dale Blaut and James McCloud were the big men for the Buffs as they evened their season record to a 10-10 mark. The loss placed HBC's record at 7-8.

Blaut hit 24 points for the winners, even though he sat out much of both halves. McCloud hit 20 points and was strong on the boards.

Houston's leading scorer, E. C. Coleman, a 6-6 freshman, made well below his season average, hitting only 7 points.

John Bailey, a 6-1 junior, led the Huskies with 21 points.

Houston Baptist led for the first six minutes of Tuesday night's outing, before a free throw by McCloud rang true to even the score up at 9-9. From there, it was the Buffs' game, except for a period later in the half.

With a 12-footer by Coleman, the Buffs fell behind by one with 12 minutes remaining. At one time during the next two minutes, the Buffs were behind by as many as four.

With 10:19 remaining John Burkhalter tipped one in for two and evened the score at 18-18.

The Buffs pulled out ahead, but Huskie Jim Skaggs made one of two free throws called to penalize WTSU Coach Dennis Walling.

Again the Huskies pulled away from the Buffs, but the West Texans regained their composure with about six minutes remaining and pulled six away from the Houston team by half-time.

McCloud's 10-footer made it 43-37 at intermission.

With second half, the Buffs began an effective press, a press which did its job.

Slowly the Buffs pulled eight points away from the foe, then continually scored and with just six minutes left in the game, the Buffs led by 22 points.

Blaut hit 16 points within four minutes midway in the half to spur the Buffs.

With such a terrific lead, Walling plugged in substitutions and the winning

Installing Gas Air Conditioning in the Winter is for the

and the Joneses and the Smiths...

and just about everybody who loves comfort and knows a wise move when they see one. Installing gas air conditioning now will allow you to beat the spring rush that always comes with that first hot or dusty day. So, while others are waiting for the overworked installers, you'll be cool, calm and collected...already enjoying the benefits of your winter air conditioning buy. Gas quietly cools your whole house for what you may have been paying to cool two or three rooms before. And, you'll save on repairs, too, because gas air conditioning has no compressor to break down or wear out, and a com-pressor is a usual source of failure in other air conditioning systems.

So, join the smart ones. Call Pioneer today and tell them you'd like to find out more about installing gas air conditioning in winter. A representative will come tell you just what it will take to convert your present forced air heating system to gas air conditioning. It costs you nothing to get a complete cooling survey of your home or business.

Friemels Pass 62 Years

Friemel and Mrs. Clements observed their 62nd wedding anniversary Wednesday with their children stopping by for a visit.

The Friemels were married at High Hill in Faith County on a Tuesday 62 years ago. The time was nine o'clock that morning, recalled Mrs. Friemel, who said that the wedding ceremony was conducted in the church of the small German community and followed with a family dinner in the home. Two weeks following the marriage, the couple was establishing their home in the Umbarger community in west Randall County. He farmed at Umbarger until his retirement six years past and now oversees his son's farming in a helpful way.

"Our children were all raised and educated here," related Mrs. Friemel. "We have lived on the same farm for all these years and taught the children how to work hard."

Both of their sons, Alvin and Vincent Friemel, are farming at Umbarger and one daughter, Mrs. Sylvester Batenhorst, married a farmer in the community. Their other daughter, Mrs. W. L. Weaver of Borger, is the wife of a welder.

They have 14 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren and are members of St. Mary's Catholic Church. The Friemels attribute their 62 years of marriage to being "able to live and work together."

Pilot International Is Service Style Club

An organizational meeting for Pilot International will be held Monday evening, February 16, at 7:30 p.m. in the Girl Scout Building in Canyon.

Pilot International is a women's civic service club designed to promote good government, good citizenship and develop civic, educational, social and moral welfare of the community.

Speaking at the organizational meeting Monday evening will be Miss Dorothy Blumer, extension chairman for the High Plains chapter, and Mrs. Ernestine Gilliam, a member of the Amarillo chapter of Pilot International and governor of district 8.

The local group must have a minimum of 20 signing for membership before a charter will be issued to a local chapter, according to Miss Mary Grabber. She related that nine Canyon women attended the first organizational meeting recently.

"It is a classified club," said Miss Grabber, "similar to the men's clubs where women from all walks of life and the professions are desired as members."

"At first we will plan meetings twice a month for the first year, and then that may be decreased to only once a month. Meetings will include regular business discussions and a program," according to Miss Grabber.

"It is a service club and undertakings would be in relation to what the community is in need of at that time," related Miss Grabber explaining that the Amarillo chapter of Pilot International was the original founder of what has since developed into the Amarillo Speech and Hearing Center.

"All projects undertaken must be of benefit to the community and its residents—this is not a social club," she stated.

Club membership requires no special age limitation except that students (either high school or college) must be employed more than half of the time to qualify. Dues, which include national fees, will be set by the local chapter as it's members see fit following definite organization.

"We are hoping to have enough interest shown among our women here to warrant the organization of this women's service club," concluded Miss Grabber.

All interested women may attend the organizational meeting Monday evening to gain further information on the club's objectives and membership.

Sunnyhill HD Holds Meeting With 'Colors'

Sunnyhill Home Demonstration Club met last Thursday in the home of Mrs. E. W. Miller with a special program given by the home demonstration agent, Becky Hall, on colors in the home.

Club president, Dawn Moore, presided at the business meeting as Lou Daugherty had the opening exercise and roll call was answered by eight members on "my favorite colors."

Committees were appointed and the council report was given by Leona Henry. Announcement was made that the district meeting will be April 16 in Hereford and a special program on fashion trends will be April 1 at the Farm Bureau Building.

Next meeting for the club will be February 19 in the home of Mrs. Tom Henry and Leona Henry will present the program on "photo tinting."

Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Eddie Bryan were guests for the meeting. Members present were Mesdames Sy Moore, Cecil Daugherty, Roy Bryan, Gene Shipman, O. O. Henry, Fay Hand, Bertie Culp and the hostess, Mrs. Miller.

Merry Maids Host Event

The Merry Maids and Matrons 42 Club met last Thursday evening at the American Legion Hall for a regular session with refreshments and decorations following a Valentine theme.

Others present for the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. I. F. # Color Short Course Being Taught

A housing and home furnishing program on "Learning to See Color" is being given this month by Becky Hall, home demonstration agent to each of the county's HD clubs in their regular meetings.

The beginning session of the three meeting color short course is being devoted to the introduction of what color is, use of the color wheel, labeling of the primary, secondary and tertiary colors, tints and shades.

Included in the first session this month are a discussion of the colors which complement, the characteristics of color such as hue, value and intensity, and the law of relativity showing which colors complement and contrast and their intensity when used together.

Mrs. Hall's second program in the series will be at the March HD Club meetings and will be devoted to the three dimensions of color, hue, value and intensity and the club members will explore the eight basic types of color control.

The final session of the three-part series will be devoted to a planning session where club members will use diagrams of their homes with color swatches of material to determine the coordination of colors of their own individual homes.

Mrs. Hall explained that "color is an abundant and vital element of our environment and only in total darkness can we escape the sensations resulting from color."

"The appearance of form and space as well as man's emotions can be altered by the use of color," she related.

She said that the color of an object results from two main factors: 1. The way the object absorbs and reflects light, and 2. the kind of light that makes the object visible.

"When light strikes an object some colors are absorbed and others reflected and these reflected hues give objects their color," related Mrs. Hall. "White objects reflect almost all the colors in light while black objects absorb most of them. The color of light also depends on its source and whatever it passes through before coming to our eyes—light from the noon sun is colorless, while that from the moon is bluish. Open fires, candles and incandescent bulbs emit and yellow-orange glow.

Understanding facts and relationships of an organized color theory is an essential first step in becoming better acquainted with color. The more one knows about color, the more colors one is able to see, enjoy and use with confidence, related Mrs. Hall.

She explained that several color theories exist including the physicist's theory which is based on light; the psychologist's theory which is based on sensation; and the artist's theory which is based on pigments and dyes.

In conclusion Mrs. Hall related that "several pigment theories are accepted but the series will be following the three-primary system which is that red, yellow and blue are the primary colors and can be mixed to form all the other colors, but they themselves cannot be made by mixing any other colors."

She further explained that secondary colors are formed by combining equal portions of any two primary colors such as yellow combined with blue results in green while red and yellow form orange.

The tertiary or intermediate colors are formed by mixing a secondary color with an adjacent primary color such as red combined with orange resulting in orange-red or red-orange, depending upon the proportion of the colors combined.

The neutral colors are white, gray and black and are not identified as colors but rather identified as modifiers which may be added to colors to change them.

Three important properties about every color are revealed by one's sight, according to Mrs. Hall, as she explained that the color's name (hue), its lightness or darkness (value) and its brightness or dullness (intensity) makes each color unlike all others.

Mrs. Becky Hall

Optimistic Outlook Toward University

"The Optimistic Outlook" was the topic of Mrs. Emerson Haraden's talk Saturday for the Canyon branch of the American Association of University Women.

The program was one of a series of presentations on the theme "The Academic Community—New Look On Campus."

In her speech Mrs. Haraden outlined the main lines of thought on the university and its future as:

1. Major problems of the university are rooted in the society which supports it. In other words, the problems of the campus can't be solved on campus—they have to be solved in the nation and in the world.

2. Today's student activist is more painfully aware of this situation than any former generation of students has ever been—and more determined to work for solutions and reforms.

3. For the first time in the history of the human race we have the technology either to benefit all of mankind, or to destroy all of us. The realization that we have reached a decisive turning point in human history is being grasped by people everywhere, but more acutely by student activists.

And 4. The idea is being expressed that the university must take upon itself the responsibility of providing systematic innovative thinking to discover new Audrey Bruse, county tax assessor-collector, to prepare specifications for computerizing the county's tax rolls. Advertisement for bids is expected to be okayed Monday.

Mrs. Bruse said total cost of preparing the 1969 tax roll was $8,178, including labor and supplies. She noted that the top price which might be charged for computerizing the tax rolls could be about $6,000.

The commissioners voted to rent a radar unit for the county's Texas Department of Public Safety patrolmen for three months.

Ron Boyter, highway patrolman, told commissioners the DPS has no radar in the county currently. He stressed that with the heavy volume of traffic on U. S. 87, such a unit is needed badly.

He proposed the county purchase a unit costing about $1,700, but noted the unit could be rented or leased.

The county also voted to allocate two-thirds of the money which it received in October from the Buffalo Lake Refuge to Canyon Independent School District.

One-third of the money, which totaled $4,900, will go to the county road and bridge fund.

Jerry Jacobs, local school superintendent, appeared before the commission and asked if the schools would receive any of the $4,900.

In the past, the county has given a portion of the money received from the refuge to the schools.

In final action, the commissioners received a check for $603 from the Amarillo Juvenile Probation Office. The money was allocated but not used last year.

pull together," he said.

Then Randall County Clerk Leroy Hutton, a Republican, jumped from his seat and walked to the front of the room. He, too, tried to turn the executive committee toward its business of the night.

Sims jumped to his feet. "I've been on this executive committee before," he cried. "We know what to do. You aren't on this committee and I'm tired of hearing you."

Dampf was again on his feet. He swung and faced Sims.

He waved his fist in Sims' face and told him he would fight him if he didn't "sit down and shut up."

Smith, again red in the face, jumped up and shouted, "I don't appreciate people coming in here and saying 'I'm a Republican, so elect me.'"

"Come on outside," Dampf said and began walking toward the door.

"I'm not going to fight you," Smith said. "It's not worth it."

Brooks, who had in the mean time been watching the proceedings, said "I can see there's going to be a pretty big difference of opinion."

With that, everyone calmed down and the remainder of the meeting was conducted without incident.

The executive committee named replacements to the various vacant precinct chairs and passed a motion not to assess Republican candidates a filing fee.

The committee will meet again on March 16 to make final plans for the May 2 primary.

Brooks closed the meeting by calling upon those present to back the party nominees.

"All of you have been Republicans a long time," Brooks said. "My only concern is that we remain Republicans. Last year you did not. If there are those here who will not support the candidates the best thing is for them not to hold a party office. Let's keep this in the framework of the Republican Party."

Girl Eagles Take Win Over Slaton

BY SAM ALLRED
The girl Eagles were not as impressive as the junior varsity Tuesday night, but rolled to a convincing if uninspired 53-47 victory over the Slaton Tigerettes.

The junior varsity moved with bold assurance to defeat the Slaton "B" team 55-36, after leading 48-25 at the end of the third quarter, but the varsity just never looked that confident.

The Eagles' Cindy Jones corraled the opening tip and it looked like the squad was off to the races, but several plays later Slaton responded with a field goal and a free throw to lead 3-2.

Miss Jones intercepted a Slaton pass with 5:30 left in the first quarter and the varsity responded to lead 5-3, the beginning of a quarter-long seesaw battle.

Slaton tied the score at 8-8 with two minutes left but Cam Davis drove to the basket and Linda Lehman added two to give the Eagles a 13-12 first quarter advantage.

Slaton's Marilyn Meeks, a wizard on ball control, and their big center Marilyn Davis continued to be effective in the second quarter, moving Slaton to within one, 15-14 with 6:25 left.

Jan Sternberg, capable of breaking a game open at any time, retaliated with three field goals in a row and fed a perfect pass to Leta Gill to give the Eagles a 27-17 advantage with 2:35 left in the half.

Cindy Jones continued to rebound well against the taller Slaton center in the third quarter, but missed shots and turnovers by the Eagle squad moved the score to a relatively low 32-21 advantage midway through the period.

Cheryl Davis continued to be the bread and butter girl of the defense, performing a beautiful block on a layup by the big Slaton center then stealing the ball, which Miss Sternberg then converted for two points.

Canyon was forced to shoot three times with 3:17 remaining in the third quarter before Linda Lehman finally drove in for a layup to make the score 37-23.

Canyon raised it to 41-24 with 25 seconds left, and Miss Sternberg converted a foul shot to bring the third quarter box score to 42-27.

Slaton never gave up but Canyon continued to hit and miss from the floor, moving to a 49-41 advantage with 4:15 remaining. The Eagles left but Cam Davis drove to the basket and Linda Lehman added two to give the Eagles a 13-12 first quarter advantage.

BY JOAN FOWLKES

(Editor's Note: Items of interest may be turned into Mrs. Fowlkes by calling 372-5914).

Mr. and Mrs. David Camfield, Cary, Davy, and Kip have returned from a week-long trip, of relaxation and rest, to the El Porvenir Christian Camp near Las Vegas, New Mexico.

A couple from Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Brad Bealmeier and their children were also along on the trip where, according to Mrs. Camfield, the group really roughed it! She said it was extremely cold while they were there and the only heat was from a central fireplace in the large main lodge. And for someone who is used to the pleasures of life, all the cooking was done on an old wood-burning cook stove.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Keith and children this past week was Mrs. Keith's mother, Mrs. Maude Hanner, from McLean, Texas, who was here for several days.

And last week-end, Mrs. Keith's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hanner from Borger were down.

According to one member, the response to the "Songsman Quartet" that provided the music for the morning services last Sunday at the Hollywood Baptist Church, was very good, with many visitors and guests attending the services.

Also this was Boy Scout Sunday and many members of Pack and Troop 130 attended in uniform.

The "Sweetheart Banquet" is scheduled to be held in the fellowship hall Saturday evening at 7:00 p.m. for the Intermediates and Young People of the church and their dates.

Sunday will carry the theme of Christian Education Day with the highlight of the services conducted in connection with the Baptist Denominational Colleges.

Back from a trip to New Orleans, Louisiana and a week-end of pleasure and sightseeing are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Beck.

Also along on the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Van Horn of Amarillo. The two couples spent much of their time, while there, watching the preparation of the opening of the Mardi Gras.

Mrs. LaMorris Herrin is recuperating at home after being released last week-end from Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo.

She was in the hospital for about a week for tests and treatment of a recent illness.

Two couples and their families from the Gene Howe area spent the week-end at a family gathering at Muleshoe recently.

They were Mr. and Mrs. Don Palmer, Quain, Shonda, and Shane and Mr. and Mrs. Winton Campbell Kelli, and Darla.

The affair was held at the home of an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gables and was attended by approximately 34 guests.

Mrs. Randal Owen was in Goodnight, Texas last Tuesday to attend a funeral for the father of a close friend.

Mrs. Orval Clevinger is hoping to return to work in the next week or two.

She has been recuperating at home from an injury received in an automobile accident January 5th in Amarillo.

Three ROTC Students Get Army Honor

Three Reserve Officer Training Corps students at West Texas State University have been offered commissions in the Regular Army, it was announced this week.

The three are Kenneth Knight, Royce Ray and Jim Yates.

Lt. Col. Billy R. Smith announced the offer.

Knight, Yates and Ray are ROTC scholarship students. Each has a four-year Army obligation following graduation from WTSU.

Knight and Yates are to be commissioned in field artillery and Ray is to be commissioned in infantry.

School making for a total bond issue of $1,350,000.00. Construction at the junior high building began July 11, 1969 and according to school officials "it is hoped that a large portion of the new building will be occupied by the students in the fall of 1970." The junior high building is expected to be finished by January 1971.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Morris of Odessa were in Canyon recently to visit with sisters, Mr. G. H. Prichard and Mrs. Nettie Vick, and a brother, E. D. Morris, and their families.

Two of Canyon's Women's study clubs have elected new officers who will be installed at regular meetings in May. Named this week as new president for Heritage Woman's Club was Mrs. Orrell Vise. The Canyon Study Club named Mrs. Weyman Brown as president for next year at their meeting Tuesday evening.

Campus Veterans Seeking Jobs For Student Servicemen

The president of the West Texas State University Campus Veterans Association said recently his group is seeking the aid of businessmen who may have afternoon or evening jobs available that veterans could fill.

John Roberts, a Navy veteran and a junior at WTSU, said the average veteran is over 21, married and supporting a family while attending school.

"We think these factors, plus veterans' added maturity, make them excellent employees," Roberts said. "Because many are living solely on their education assistance checks, the need is definitely there."

Roberts said information concerning the number of veterans available for work, their individual qualifications and schedules could be obtained by writing Box 315, W. T. Station, Canyon, Texas, 79015.

AN ADVERTISING SUPPLEMENT TO THE CANYON NEWS, FEBRUARY 12, 1970

Just Released—"MAJOR ADAMS" Series To Be Seen on KVII

WARD BOND RETURNS TO TELEVISION

Pro News Men Have Human Side, Too

by Free-lance Writer, Ray Knight

The hard-nosed, cold-facts atmosphere in which KVII's Pro News men work might suggest that the men themselves should be stern and insensitive.

A casual chat in a rare calm moment reveals quite a different picture.

Take Jim Pratt, for example. As KVII's Managing Editor, Jim must put his twenty-two years of broadcasting experience on the line before each newscast; it's up to him to determine which of the thousands of daily happenings will be of greatest interest to area viewers. It's the kind of job that would make a lesser man cringe.

But Jim Pratt is a big man with a big friendliness. He approaches his awesome duties with the calm confidence that big men always seem to have. In the whirlwind of frantic activity before every newscast, Jim can be seen at the center of the storm, guiding his staff steadily through preparations for the broadcast just moments away. Unruffled, he directs editing of a film story, decides a script question for one of the reporters, explains to the producer how the sequence of shots will go, and diplomatically fields a call from a complaining viewer. While others in the same shoes might appear harassed, Jim is collected, cool.

I asked him what his secret was. "Well," he said, "maybe it's like that little sign over there says—'Anyone who can keep his head in all this confusion just doesn't understand the situation.'"

Okay, count modesty as another Jim Pratt trademark. He does, indeed, understand the situation. Associated Press and UPI awards for best newscast, best story, and best documentary attest to his awareness. His understanding of the situation won him the C.B.S. News Fellowship to Columbia University and the I.M.A. Man of the Year Award in 1963. When he says something, he knows whereof he speaks.

As a political science scholar, Jim expresses concern for the future. "The sociological lag must catch up to the technological advance," he says. "If not, the population explosion will produce self-annihilation or cause legalization of genocide." To Jim and Dorothy, his wife of twenty-three years, the future is an important matter: "We have four daughters who'll have to live in it."

Roger Davis, the other half of the anchor team on Pro News, pursues more immediate problems through his efforts on the Hotline feature. Designed to expose and correct specific problems revealed by viewers, Hotline—under Roger's direction—has provided the individual citizen with the means to get action on his grievances.

In "real life"—that is, off-camera—Roger is the same man you see on your home screen: generally serious, but gifted with a subtle, sharply-honed wit that contrasts pleasantly with the gentle, homey humor of Jim Pratt. It was Roger who started the good-natured feud with Pratt as to whether a broken area in street pavement was a "chuckhole" (as it is known in his native Pennsylvania), or a "chug-hole" (as ex-farm boy Pratt maintains). To this writer's knowledge, the question remains unresolved.

Such exchanges between the two provide brightness and optimism to leaven the often disheartening character of today's news.

In the more entertaining world of sports, Woody Van Dyke sparkles as one of the really true "sports." With abandon befitting a Darrell Royal on fourth down, Woody jumps in with both feet. Controversy swirls in his wake. After each of his reports, the ring of the newsroom phone is inevitable. And inevitably the comments run the gamut—from, "Hey, Woody, you're absolutely right; give 'em the dickens!", to the less complimentary, "What kinda ding-a-ling sportscaster are you?" Rarely is there a middle ground. But then, Woody is not a middle-of-the-road guy.

Woody's greatest concern? Getting the Dallas Cowboys into the Super Bowl!

If there is anyone on the Pro News team who must endure more torment than Van Dyke, it would have to be Channel 7's Weatherman, Bill Stone. This affable man-of-the-elements faces the formidable task of predicting the behavior of Nature's most unpredictable phenomenon. But Stone stands square to the odds, draws deep from nearly thirty years experience, and fires his forecast. I've checked up on the results: his aim is good.

Perhaps Bill's accuracy can be attributed to his long experience with the U.S. Weather Bureau and U.S. Air Force (ret'd), where many lives were dependent on his oracle powers.

Absorbed with the weather and its study, Bill speaks of social problems in the jargon of his trade. He sees the greatest difficulty befronting current society as being "Pollution—not only atmospheric, but in the personal lives of individuals."

Like I said, his aim is good.

Jim Pratt, Roger Davis, Woody Van Dyke, Bill Stone—four men who breathe and live an austere, punishing, demanding profession that few of us could survive. Yet these four men—leaders of the KVII Pro News team—meet their individual challenges with the cool poise of professionals, and still find time to be human.

You've gotta admire guys like that.

When it ran on the network, "Wagon Train" was the highest-rated western in TV history. No other western has matched its rugged appeal since. Now the incomparable WARD BOND can be enjoyed again as "Major Adams" comes to the KVII screen each weeknight following the 10 p.m. Pro News.

In announcing KVII's decision to program the series in this time period, managing partner John Tyler said, "We feel the viewers should be offered an alternative to the talk-show format. Ward Bond was a great actor and made this series a television classic. We felt the people at home who don't like the talk shows would enjoy seeing this wholesome award-winning program."

"Major Adams" not only deals with the covered wagons and their extraordinary passengers, but also relates the lives of townspeople en route who offer pioneers a haven for rest, repairs and reorganization. In these roles will be such stars as Ernest Borgnine, Mickey Rooney, Bette Davis, Charles Laughton, Wally Cox, Ricardo Montalban, Lee Marvin, Agnes Moorehead, Cliff Robertson, Shelley Winters and many more.

Among the many awards garnered by this series is one by The Saturday Review of Literature, which stated: "This is the best of the Westerns... bold, refreshing... fine production... emphasis on character and authentic atmosphere."

"Major Adams" can be seen Monday through Friday at 10:45 p.m., right after the 10 p.m. Pro News.

Supporting Cast Gives Pro News Strong Foundation

In the trade, they're called "leg men." They're the men who log hundreds of hours and miles of tire rubber in search for news. They're a sturdy, dedicated breed. At KVII, they're known as Conners, Foss, and Zortman. Because of their maddeningly regular knack for getting exclusive scoops, their competitors call them the "Fearsome Three-some." Together they form a broad base of experience to provide firm support for KVII's Pro News.

Larry Conners, while news director of an Amarillo radio station, wrote and produced news broadcasts that were later to be cited with honors from both United Press International and Associated Press. He's currently seen on KVII's noon Pro News.

In the saying "It takes one to know one" lies the key to Kelly Foss' invaluable contribution to Pro News broadcasts.

In a profession which finds itself closely related to law enforcement sources, it is a distinct asset to have served in those ranks. Before entering broadcasting, Kelly did duty as a police officer in Hereford and in Amarillo. He also served as a deputy sheriff for Potter County.

The man with the sonorous handle of Bill Tell Zortman hails from the corn country of Iowa. As KVII's Man-in-Motion, Zortman's beat is the Texas Panhandle, with concentration on events of importance to viewers in the Pampa and Borger areas. These three men, along with a critical assist from photo-man Jim Davis (who makes sure all the newscast is processed right... and in time), make up the support team of Pro News—the sweat behind the glory.

New Program Line-Up Sparks Channel 7 Viewing

In response to viewer requests, KVII's programming department has made several changes in the Spring line-up that should win approval of TV fans.

The most notable new show is MAJOR ADAMS with Ward Bond at 10:45 following Pro News Monday through Friday.

The morning line-up sees the much-acclaimed "SESAME STREET" series at 8:00 already proving to be a children's favorite.

Famous TIMMY AND LASSIE find a home at 10:00, just before GALLOPING GOURMET at 10:30.

JUDD FOR THE DEFENSE, who's been keeping late hours on Channel 7, moves to 3:00 each weekday afternoon, followed by DARK SHADOWS, THE MUNDERS, "F" TROOP, and GILLIGAN'S ISLAND.

Movie fans get another night on KVII with the addition of FRIDAY CINEMA SEVEN at 11:45, following MAJOR ADAMS.

CATTLE BOOM

Tompkins Keeps Tabs on Rapidly Growing Cattle Feeding Industry

All of a sudden you see businessmen wearing cowboy boots and LBJ-type Stetsons. You hear office workers quoting the current market price on good-to-choice slaughter steers. Even a conversation with the corner druggist is sprinkled with words like fat cattle, cost-per-pound of gain, and shrink.

It's all part of the $6-billion and still-growing cattle feeder-packing industry in the Texas Panhandle. With over a million head of cows being finished out in area feedlots, the cattle industry has become a prime support to the economy.

Jack Tompkins, KVII's Farm and Ranch Director, keeps Channel 7 viewers abreast of the changing influences on the cattle market. Through his many contacts with key people in the industry, Tompkins is able to provide immediate information on fluctuations in the market.

In addition to cattle news, Tompkins also features grain and hog prices on his daily reports at 6:45 a.m. and noon on KVII.

And STILL Texas' Tallest Tower

Though several new television towers have been erected in the state since the completion of KVII's tower last spring, none have challenged Channel 7's title of Texas' Tallest Tower.

The orange-and-white mammoth majestically stretches 1,703 feet into the Panhandle sky above the Canadian River breaks. A third of a mile high, the Channel 7 tower climbs higher than the Empire State Building, the Eiffel Tower and the Statue of Liberty.

Texas' Tallest Tower from KVII—unchallenged and still champion.

Clovis viewers may now see KVII programs on Channel 6, via the newly-constructed translator northeast of the city. Consult your TV serviceman or dealer for antenna information.
